Individuals may enroll in KUMC undergraduate and graduate-level courses for their own enjoyment and not for the attainment of a degree as an "auditing student." If you enroll as an auditing student, the University will issue a grade of "NE" ("Not Evaluated") for all courses you take that semester. A grade of "NE" signifies the inability of those courses to be used toward a degree or to be transferred to another university. For an explanation of auditing requirements and procedures, see the KUMC Office of the Registrar website. Complete applications should be submitted to the KUMC Registrar's Office.

SUBMIT THIS APPLICATION FOR EACH COURSE YOU ARE WISHING TO AUDIT.

Financial and Academic Responsibility

A $200 non-refundable auditing fee will be assessed each semester a student audits a course or courses. This fee will be assessed through the student's Enroll & Pay financial account. Students will receive their Enroll & Pay log in information after they are enrolled in their course/courses. The student will receive notification of their bill within the first month of the semester, or within the first month after they are enrolled (if enrollment occurs after the beginning of the semester). The audit fee is eligible for all applicable late payment fees. If payment is not received by the published due-date, late payment fees may be assessed. The student may contact Student Financial Accounting at 913-588-2590 with any payment questions.

By signing below, you attest to the following:

- I understand that this application will not be processed until one week prior to the first day of classes. If space is available, staff in the Office of the Registrar will manually enroll me in the course.
